University of the Peloponnese at the EUNICE Board of Directors Meeting in Brussels

The University of the Peloponnese participated in the Board of Directors meeting of EUNICE \(European University for Customised Education\) Alliance, held in Brussels (Belgium) from January 22 to 24, 2025. Representatives from the 10 universities of the Alliance attended the meeting to further develop EUNICE's strategic direction. The University of the Peloponnese was represented by its Vice-Rector for Administrative Affairs, International Relations & Outreach, Professor Efthalia Chatzigianni, and by Lecturer Areti Vogopoulou, member of the university's project team.

The focus of the discussions was on advancing EUNICE's research, academic, and collaborative initiatives, strengthening its commitment to fostering innovation and institutional cooperation.

The meeting served as a platform for productive discussions on shaping the strategic direction of the Alliance, while confirming the positive atmosphere of collaboration among its members.
